Brigadier Patrick Davidson-Houston CBE DL

Following an Army University Cadetship and RMA Sandhurst, Patrick was commissioned into The Duke of Edinburgh's Royal Regiment (Berkshire and Wiltshire) in 1975. His early service included a tour with the Sultan of Oman's Land Forces. On the formation of The Royal Gloucestershire, Berkshire and Wiltshire Regiment in 1994, he was appointed commanding officer of the 1st Battalion. During his regimental service, he deployed on operational tours to Northern Ireland, Oman and with UNPROFOR in Bosnia, as well as serving in Hong Kong, Germany, Cyprus and UK. In 2007 his regiment underwent a further amalgamation to form the Rifles.

In 1998 he was appointed Commander, 8th Infantry Brigade in Northern Ireland. After the Royal College of Defence Studies course in 2001, he deployed to Sierra Leone as the UK Joint Force Commander. This was followed by an appointment in the MoD London and a tour with the Multinational Force HQ in Iraq. His last appointments were Chief of Staff AU-UN Force in Darfur, Force Commander UN Mission in Ethiopia & Eritrea, and finally Principal Military Advisor to the UN Special Representative for Somalia, retiring in 2009.

From 2010 Patrick worked in the Foreign Office, initially in the British Embassy, Kabul, then as a Senior Security & Justice Adviser with Department for International Development and finally as a Senior Operations Advisor in the Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office. He retired from the Civil Service in July 2023.

He is President of The Rifles & Royal Gloucestershire, Berkshire and Wiltshire Regimental Association, Chairman of the Army Benevolent Fund (Norfolk) and a Deputy Lieutenant of Greater London. Patrick lives with his family in Fulham and North Norfolk.

Where the money goes...

We continue to fundraise to provide the school with crucial equipment

So far, together we have raised £106,500.00.

To advance the education of the pupils at Gorazde Primary School, Bosnia and Herzegovina, through the provision of facilities not provided by local education authority, for the education through the medium of English at school. To also assist in such ways as the charity trustees see fit to advance education at Gorazde Primary School.

This is done by developing their mental, physical, and moral capabilities through sporting and leisure activities. To assist in any other projects, which would enhance and support the education/ wellbeing of children, that the charity trustees see fit from time-to-time.
